

Attention Members: Volunteer Leadership Opportunity

As a member-owner of Alliance Credit Union, you have a voice in the overall governance of the credit union. Alliance is run by a volunteer Board elected by, and from, the membership. This democratic process ensures the board remains accountable to the membership.

A volunteer position is now available:
One open seat on the Board of Directors

Role of the Board of Directors: Maintains the general direction and control of the credit union. This includes: guiding the organization to fulfill its purpose; setting policy which guides the affairs of the credit union; and ensuring that policies are carried out in accordance with applicable provisions of the credit union charter, bylaws, all applicable federal and state laws, sound business practices, and the needs of the membership.

Qualifications: The successful candidate will have a strong understanding of financial concepts, strategic leadership, and the desire to serve in a volunteer capacity. Must be able to attend evening board meetings monthly, periodic committee meetings, and a weekend planning meeting once a year.

If you are interested in this position, speak to a financial center manager to request an application or contact Teresa Schrader, the assistant to the CEO, at 408.979.5140 or email TSchrader@AllianceCU.org.

Thank you for your membership.
